

South Central Christian Men's Fellowship Minutes
July 28, 2014
Salem Christian Church

Worship time called to order and opening prayer by Tim Hill. Evening speaker was Adam Gordon, Minister from Winona Christian Church. He spoke from Matthew 5:13-16 (salt and light).

His three points relating to being salt were as follows:

- If the salt loses its taste, what is good for?
- You can take a light and hide it under a bowl, or
- You can evangelize!

Business Meeting called to order with prayer by Brian Ingalls. Willow Springs and Oak Hill tied for the banner and Willow Springs yielded to Oak Hill since they had the banner last month. There was a total of 61 in attendance.

Brian Ingalls gave overview of the finances but no financial report available. Church plant account is at $2,993.00; General Account is at $3,000.00; Keith Cunningham Scholarship Fund is at $1,920.22 and the golf tournament took in $1,691.00 (included in Scholarship Fund total).

Nate Cooper, West Plains Christian Campus House Minister, gave overview of his mission trip to Zambia, Africa to the Bethlehem Christian Academy. This ministry was started by two people with prayer and the school is now up to the 3rd grade. He also showed a video of the mission.

Ron Antle gave an update on the activities pavilion at the Campus House. He also gave an update on the church plant in Thayer and Mammoth Spring.

Brian asked for any new business. There was none.

Church announcements included Brian Ingalls giving a quick overview of the Harvest Program that Mountain View is implementing. Kendall Bates, Willow Springs, reminded that we are to pray for the church plant each month.

Don Crockett closed in prayer.
